

Bergheim VFD Election Event Save The Date

The Board of Directors of Bergheim Volunteer Fire Department (Bergheim VFD) invites you to our Resident Awareness and Educational Events to discuss the Emergency Services District (ESD) creation proposition on the upcoming November 8th, 2022 ballot relative to Kendall County Emergency Services District No. 1 (KCESD 1).

The events will cover information regarding the status of Bergheim VFD, the response requirements of the service area, and the strategic plan and goals of the new ESD if so approved by voters. For those interested, there is information posted regarding the election for your review at:

<https://www.bergheimvfd.org/faq>

These events are free to attend and open to the public. Residents can arrive at any time during the event window and speak with Board members and VFD membership. There will be refreshments and residents can view the apparatus in the bays.

Residents are invited to come to either (or both) event(s) on the following dates:

Saturday, October 1, 2022

11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Thursday, October 20, 2022

6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Both events will be held at the Bergheim VFD station, located at:

1 Old Curry Creek Road

Boerne, Tx 78006

We look forward to hosting our neighbors and friends at these events!
